

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Volunteer Name: Flo Wagner

Country: Uganda

Country project: Maize

Host: Namubuka ACE

Venue: Hospital and local government office

Audience: Doctors, nurses, farmers

Number of people :11

Date: 19/9/14 & 25/9/14

1. Assignment Objectives as in SOW

Group leaders and board members clearly understand the rationale for including gender issues in agricultural development

Strategies and approaches undertaken to achieve a better gender balance

Management team to implement gender equality and advice on women's empowerment

2. Achievement of the assignment objectives

Worked in 5 villages spoke to 241 women and men about concerns of health and gender issues

Trained board and villagers members on domestic violence on gender based violence that is directed against women because she's a woman or men because he's a man. Trained villagers and board members to deal with gender based

3. Recommendations to the host with regards to the assignment

- Future volunteers to teach villagers to speak with one voice.
- Continues of training and analysis of middle management by knowledgeable of the board
- training on time management, training of middle management, male and female. Training of trust and social capital

4. Anticipated Impact

- Villagers to understand on gender issues are and how to deal with them. Understand empowerment, process of gaining control of one another. Understanding what gender means.
- More gender equality and women empowerment. Fairness of treatment for women and men according to their expected needs.

5. Recommended future volunteer Assistance

- Strategic planning
- Resource mobilization

6. Recommendations to other non-host stakeholders

- Embrace gender balance for peaceful and productive household
- Husbands should involve women in all household decision making

7. How can CRS improve future volunteer experience

Thank You!