

Mariano Pereira

F2F Timor-Leste Country Director

Mariano has a Master's degree in Business and Management from the University of Waikato in New Zealand, and a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the Universidade da Paz (UNPAZ) in Timor-Leste.

He has worked for over 10 years in program management on several initiatives funded by DFAT, UNDP, US Peace Corps, and the Red Cross. Most recently, Mariano worked on the Partnership for Human Development (PHD) as an organizational development manager under DFAT-funded programs implemented by Abt Australia.

Celestina Ramos Cristo

F2F Timor-Leste Project officer

Celestina Ramos Cristo is the Project Officer of Farmer to Farmer (F2F) in Catholic Relief Service Timor-Leste. She is responsible to assist the Project Manager to manage the project activities and the implementation through assisting the development of scope of works, maintain the communication between the host and volunteer regarding on the volunteer assignment and preparation, manage logistic preparation for the volunteer assignment in country, Assisting the volunteer on the field, collect data, final report and presentation, and collaborate with Project Manager to update data and documents for each volunteer assignment.

She has Bachelor's English language from the National University of Timor-Lorosa'e (UNTL. Before joining CRS, she worked as a Communication Officer and translator for the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries on a project called Village Poultry Health and Biosecurity funded by DFAT. She also worked as an English teacher at the Dili Institute of Technology, and administration staff for Company Outspan Agro Timor Unipessoal Lda, and worked as a Communication Officer at NGO HIAM Health focusing on Horticulture and Nutrition.