

CRS Timor-Leste Farmer-to-Farmer Team

Mariano Pereira, Country Director

Mariano has a Master's degree in Business and Management from the University of Waikato in New Zealand, and a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the Universidade da Paz (UNPAZ) in Timor-Leste.

He has worked for over 10 years in program management on several initiatives funded by DFAT, UNDP, US Peace Corps, and the Red Cross. Most recently, Mariano worked on the Partnership for Human Development (PHD) as an organizational development manager under DFAT-funded programs implemented by Abt Australia.

Isidoro F. Tilman Pereira, F2F Project Coordinator

Isidoro is a project coordinator for the Farmer-to-Farmer program since July 2024, has over a decade of experience in agriculture, agribusiness training, and community development.

He has led initiatives in market identification, vendor surveys, and agricultural best practices, as well as supported gender and social inclusion projects. Previously, he facilitated volunteer assignments for the F2F program and held administrative roles in logistics.

With five years of experience as a barista and supervisor, Isidoro combines practical skills with a strong background in project management and community engagement. He holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Universidade

Nacional Timor Lorosa'e.